

I am opposing that the CBA be allowed to impose the federal established business relationship exemption law. This would allow the CBA to weaken the Indiana law. I personally treasure my right to telephone privacy.